

Erasmus+ Course for Teachers

Motivating Secondary Learners

Explore new ways to motivate language learners at secondary level by incorporating engaging, creative, and meaningful content into your teaching.

COURSE OUTLINE

The Motivating Secondary Learners course is designed to assist educators who teach languages to secondary school learners. The course will provide an overview of the latest methodologies in teaching this age group, an opportunity to explore new materials and discuss how to make creativity a cornerstone of your teaching practice. You will work on some lesson materials personalized to your own teaching context which will be presented at the end of the week.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overall objectives of the mobility. Explore effective and relevant methodologies in secondary education. Identify how to bring effective teamwork techniques into the teenage classroom. Discover new techniques to encourage production of key language. Learn how to incorporate creativity into all aspects of your lessons.

Added value of the mobility. The course allows participants to share teaching practices with fellow participants from secondary education.

Activities to be carried out. Completion of tasks to stimulate analysis and discussion of teaching methods and classroom practice. Workshop sessions in which participants reflect on their own practice, how they can integrate their observations into their teaching and share these with fellow participants. Opportunities to enhance their own language skills. Participants are directed towards online resources to further develop their teaching practice related to their own particular focus. Cultural and heritage trips as part of a chaperoned group.

Expected outcomes and impact. This course offers a professional development opportunity for participants which aims to provide teachers with innovative and creative solutions for teaching Secondary learners.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME

The courses are delivered in Atlantic Language School in Galway on Ireland's 'Wild Atlantic' Coast, and participants will have ample opportunity to learn about the cultural heritage of both Ireland and the local area. The week-long programme includes a full-day cultural tour to a local area of scenic and heritage value, a guided historical walking tour of Galway city, and afternoon social and cultural activities. Our staff are happy to suggest other tours and events to enjoy during your stay in Galway.
