

Erasmus+ Course for Higher Education Staff

Presentation Skills for Academics

Gain confidence in presenting your work through English. This course examines the key elements of a successful presentation, including structuring effective introductions and conclusions, signposting, and tackling transitions.

COURSE OUTLINE

Presentation Skills for Academics is designed to assist professionals and academics in Higher Education institutions who are required to present material in English. The course deals with the methodology of delivering a good presentation, stages of planning and preparation, presenting results, leading discussions and engaging with the audience. The week will culminate with participants doing a presentation, while integrating the skills learned throughout the course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overall objectives of the mobility. To improve competence in delivering presentations in English. To gain practice in relation to academic presentations, with a view to improving preparation, delivery and audience management. To give participants' feedback on their current presentation skills.

Added value of the mobility. The course equips participants to build confidence in their presentation skills so that they feel more confident presenting to international audiences.

Activities to be carried out. Interactive teaching with input sessions, individual and group work. Material design workshops to allow participants to put the theory into practice. Feedback sessions in which participants reflect on their own and peer presentation work and receive advice on the improvement of various aspects. Cultural and heritage trips as part of a chaperoned group.

Expected outcomes and impact. This course provides a professional development opportunity for participants which aims to enhance their approach to presenting to an academic audience. Through group and project work participants are invited to share knowledge and skills acquired with their colleagues. The opportunity to experience new cultural contexts and network with international colleagues is a further positive outcome.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME

The courses are delivered in Atlantic Language School in Galway on Ireland's 'Wild Atlantic' Coast, and participants will have ample opportunity to learn about the cultural heritage of both Ireland and the local area.

The week-long programme includes a full-day cultural tour to a local area of scenic and heritage value, a guided historical walking tour of Galway city, and afternoon social and cultural activities. Our staff are happy to suggest other tours and events to enjoy during your stay in Galway.
