Course Outline

Atlantic's specialised training programme for Professionals in Higher Education is focused on developing practical knowledge and soft skills required to work in modern internationalised educational institutions.

The English for Professional Communication course prioritises the development and refinement of skills required by senior professionals communicating, networking and presenting through English. The objectives of the course are to develop the soft skills required to carry out duties successfully in this setting, with a focus on the communicative abilities in English of the participants, with tailored workshops and practical language input sessions appropriate to their identified needs and priorities. Participants will leave the course with increased confidence and ability to manage the day-to-day English interactions in their workplace.

Cultural Programme

The seminar programmes are delivered by expert trainers and infused with the practical application of language teaching expertise, in Atlantic Language's twin centres: Galway, the cultural capital of Ireland on the wild Atlantic coast; and Dublin, the vibrant, cosmopolitan capital.

The week-long programme includes a professional walking tour, a cultural outing, networking lunch, and a heritage trip, all integrated with course objectives. The seminar includes opportunities for ongoing networking, job shadowing and a cultural immersion in activities such as Irish Dance. Day trips are available to the splendid Aran Islands on Europe's edge or the world-famous 250-year-old Guinness storehouse.

Atlantic Language is a premium English language school in Ireland with sites in both Galway in the West and Dublin in the East. A market leader in language education in Ireland, Atlantic has received several awards including the prestigious Language Travel Magazine Award for the Best English Language School Europe 2009.

English for Professional Communication

The English for Professional Communication is a demanding communicative course focusing on equipping professionals in Higher Education to more confidently present, network and liaise with external stakeholders in English, across a range of communicative media and disciplines. The course is delivered by expert native-speaker trainers as part of Atlantic's Specialised Courses Training programme, which has been refined over ten years of delivering high quality courses to administrators and academics.

Our specialist team of trainers employ a collaborative approach to course delivery, utilising pre-arrival questionnaires and needs analyses to adapt the course to the most practicable and beneficial programme possible for participants. See a 1-week representative sample schedule below.

Course Objectives

Overall Objectives of the Mobility	Participants will improve communicative competence in English by completing an intensive course delivered by expert trainers in an EFL context, with tangible development of skills and confidence.
Added Value of the Mobility	The course equips participants to communicate more fluently and accurately in English, thus improving their ability to perform in an international context and improving the experience of stakeholders they are required to interact with in English.
Activities to be Carried Out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Input sessions on methodology and language complemented by skills-focused workshops • Networking sessions with like-minded professionals • Cultural and Heritage Trips as a chaperoned group • Job Shadowing / Guest Speakers relating to participant areas of work
Expected Outcomes and Impact	The course provides a professional development opportunity for participants which provides practice and tangible improvement in skills they will apply in their workplaces. The courses are tailored for activities typical in Higher Education institutions and a dissemination activity is inbuilt to allow participants to share their knowledge and skills acquired on the course with colleagues. Cultural familiarisation with an international setting, and network creation for beyond the course are further aspects with an emphasis on promoting ongoing sharing of knowledge and skills.
