Course Outline

Atlantic's specialised training programme for Educators is focused on the development of lesson facilitation where the dual targets of content and language are being simultaneously pursued. The CLIL for Educators course prioritises the development and refinement of skills required by senior educators presenting through English. The objectives of the course are to develop skills on scaffolding lessons, increase communicative interaction among students, promote enquiry-based learning and provide support for learners. There is a focus on the communicative abilities in English of the participants, with tailored workshops and practical language input sessions appropriate to their identified needs and priorities.

CLIL for Educators

The CLIL for Educators course considers the essential needs and challenges faced by users of the English language in teaching a subject's content in parallel with a foreign language. The course is delivered by expert native-speaker trainers as part of Atlantic's Specialised Courses Training programme, which has been refined over ten years of delivering high quality educational methodology courses to educators.

Our specialist team of trainers employ a collaborative approach to course delivery, utilising pre-arrival questionnaires and needs analyses to adapt the course to the most practicable and beneficial programme possible for participants. See a 1-week representative sample schedule below.

Course Objectives

Overall Objectives of the Mobility	Participants will improve communicative competence in English by completing an intensive course delivered by expert trainers in an EFL context, with tangible development of skills and confidence.
Added Value of the Mobility	The course equips participants to communicate more fluently and accurately in English when giving speeches, thus improving their ability to perform in the context of the classroom.
Activities to be Carried Out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Input sessions on methodology and language complemented by skills-focused workshops • The opportunity to practice lesson scaffolding and increase communicative interactions. • Developing strategies for introducing target language and promoting enquiry-based learning. • Cultural and Heritage Trips as a chaperoned group.
Expected Outcomes and Impact	The course provides a professional development opportunity for participants which provides practice and tangible improvement in skills they will apply when teaching through English. The courses are tailored for activities typical in Higher Education institutions and a dissemination activity is inbuilt to allow participants to share their knowledge and skills acquired on the course with colleagues. Cultural familiarisation with an international setting and an emphasis on promoting ongoing sharing of knowledge and skills are further aspects for beyond the course.
