COURSE OUTLINE

The Presentation Skills course is designed to assist professionals and academics in Higher Education institutions who are required to present material in English. The course deals with the methodology of delivering a good presentation, stages of planning and preparation, presenting results, leading discussions and engaging with the audience. The week will culminate with participants doing a presentation, while integrating the skills learned throughout the course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Overall objectives of the mobility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To improve competence in delivering presentations in English • To gain practice in relation to academic presentations, with a view to improving preparation, delivery and audience management • To give participants' feedback on their current presentation skills
Added value of the mobility	The course equips participants to build confidence in their presentation skills so that they feel more confident presenting to international audiences.
Activities to be carried out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interactive teaching with input sessions, individual and group work • Material design workshops to allow participants to put the theory into practice • Feedback sessions in which participants reflect on their own and peer presentation work and receive advice on the improvement of various aspects • Cultural and heritage trips as part of a chaperoned group
Expected outcomes and impact	This course provides a professional development opportunity for participants which aims to enhance their approach to presenting to an academic audience. Through inbuilt dissemination activities, participants are invited to share knowledge and skills acquired with their colleagues. The opportunity to experience new cultural contexts and network with international colleagues is a further positive outcome

CULTURAL PROGRAMME

The seminar programmes are delivered in Atlantic Language School in Galway on Ireland's Wild Atlantic Coast, and participants will have ample opportunity to learn about the cultural heritage of both Ireland and the local area. The week-long programme includes a professional walking tour on your first day and a half-day cultural outing later in the week.
