

ATLANTIC LANGUAGE

JUNIOR SUMMER CAMP

MISSION STATEMENT

"The mission of Atlantic Language Junior Summer Camp is to provide excellent tuition, accommodation, customer support and related services to enable and support the life and learning objectives of our young adult students, catering to their specific educational needs in the unique social and cultural environment of Ireland."

OUR EDUCATIONAL APPROACH

To achieve this from an academic point of view, Atlantic Language offers:

- A focus on study methods and skills which increase confidence and ability;
- An international experience to enhance personal development;
- Immersion in Irish culture;
- Interactive activities to develop their English language skills;
- Measurable progression throughout learners' enrolment;
- A communicative approach in our teaching methods;
- Preparation of students to be able to communicate competently outside of the classroom;
- Incorporation of a variety of approaches best-suited to each particular situation e.g. process writing, guided discovery;
- Lessons carefully prepared within the remit of the core syllabus and corresponding level;
- A focus on the development of all four skills, both receptive (listening and reading) and productive (speaking and writing);
- Increased confidence for young adult learners having been prepared for real-life communication through the achievement of Atlantic Language's objectives on course completion.

Atlantic Language Objectives:

- Quality Language provision through learner-centred instruction in all classes;
- Development of 21st Century learning skills;
- Promotion of cultural and linguistic excellence;
- Provision of high-quality admission, student care and general student services.
