

Erasmus +

Objectives

The Erasmus Plus course on CLIL Methodology for Higher Education focuses on the development of lesson facilitation where the dual targets of content and language are being simultaneously pursued. Sessions in this course will focus on scaffolding lessons, increasing communicative interaction among student, setting collaborative tasks, introducing target language, promoting enquiry-based learning, providing support for the learners.

Programme

The course will run for 5 days (25h) and will also include the option to participate in cultural immersion activities (paid separately) including Irish Cultural Night and a visit to the Guinness Storehouse – the worldfamous 250-year-old former brewery.

Participants

This course is designed for teachers at third level colleges and universities who work with students in seminars, tutorials and workshops, using English as the medium of communication. Participants should have CEFR level B2 or higher in English, and be prepared to develop their use of English for the facilitation of CLIL lessons with non-native speaking students of their academic subjects.

CLIL for Higher Education

Seminar Workshop Programme

Atlantic Language's CLIL Methodology for 3rd Level Teachers Programme has been developed in collaboration with Mr. Jim Connolly, Academic Coordinator for Specialist Courses, and considers the essential needs of and the challenges faced by users of the English language in teaching a subject's content in parallel with a foreign language. The seminar programme is delivered over 25 workshop hours, divided between mornings (3h) and afternoons (2h). Atlantic Language and its tutors reserve the flexibility to amend the sequence or content to be delivered based on the observed or expressed needs of Seminar participants.
